To the AUTHOR.

UPON seeing a Letter publish'd in the Daily Post of Wednesday the Twenty-sixth of November, supposed to be from Charles Town in South Carolina, dated the 2d of July last, misrepresenting in the most false and malicious Manner the late Expedition against St. Augustine; and hearing before the Publishing the said Letter it had been maliciously handed about, and shewn at Coffee-houses, aiming thereby to defame the Character of a Gentleman whose unwearied Endeavours for the Publick Service have greatly impair'd his Health; and as I, who was a Captain in General Oglethorpe's Regiment, was present, and acted upon that Occasion as Brigade-Major, and therefore must know the whole Transaction, think it my Duty to take the following Notice of it.

As to the Cow or Low Pen he speaks of, it is a square Fort, with four Carriage Guns, and four Swivel Guns, and had a Garison in it of forty-seven Soldiers of the Regular Troops, and seven Negroes, who were all made Prisoners of War. The Cattle found there, and in Parts adjacent, were equally distributed to the King's Troops and Carolina Regiment, according to the Rations of each.

In respect of the Carolina People's being ready to storm the Town of Augustine without Opposition, it is entirely false and without the least Foundation.

In regard to Col. Palmer's Misfortune, who was killed in the first Fire from the Spaniards, he brought it upon himself by disobeying the Orders he received, which positively enjoined his keeping in the Woods, and avoiding Action, and by acting contrary to the Advice of the Officers under his Command, some of whom were present when he receiv'd his Orders, and bringing himself in the Negro Fort Moosa, where they were surrounded and defeated; the Gates of which Fort, and the House within it, the General had before burnt.

With respect to the Carolina Volunteers, that they did go away is certain, without Leave given or asked, and their Captain with them. A Captain of the Carolina Regiment also left his Command in the Guard of the Trenches, without being relieved, or asking any Leave, and went with them. After such Behaviour what Credit can be given to such Men, tho' termed Officers of Note.

As to Capt. Warren, whose Name is mentioned to endeavour to throw an Odium elsewhere, I am convinced, by the Personal Acquaintance I have with him, that he will upon all Occasions do his Duty in the Service of his King and Country; as also Capt. Lawes and Capt. Townshend, who were ashore with him in this Service.

The Morning after we landed upon the Island of Anastasia, I stood by while Capt. Warren read to General Oglethorpe a Letter to Capt. Pearse, then Commander, acquainting him of our Landing without any Loss, and the Spaniards withdrawing from that Island, to which Capt. Warren said, That all that was now necessary to secure the Reduction of the Place was the taking of the Spanish Galleys; which Undertaking he would himself head with the King's Boats, under the Cannon of the Fort, if he would give him Leave. Several Councils of War were held on Board his Majesty's Ships by the Sea-Captains, but Capt. Warren's Proposition was not undertaken.

Lest malicious People should suggest that I might be sent to England by General Oglethorpe on this Occasion, I solemnly declare, that I came at my own Desire, by his Leave, and had no Instructions from him, directly or indirectly, concerning this Affair. But my Regard to Truth, and Abhorrence of all false and malicious Reports whatsoever, have induced me to publish this, to which I set my Name.

From my Lodgings in Johnson's Court, Charing-Cross, Nov. 29, 1740. HUGH MACKAY.

The Queen of Hungary's Circular Letter to her Ministers at the Dyet and at Foreign Courts, concerning the Pretensions of the Elector of Bavaria.

MARIA THERESA, by the Grace of God Queen of Hungary, Bohemia, &c.

The Letter which his Imperial Majesty our Father of Glorious Memory wrote on the 30th of September last to the Elector of Bavaria, relating to the groundless Pretensions of that Family, has already been communicated to you, and you was at the same time ordered to make the necessary Use of its Contents at the Court where you reside. You might observe by that Letter, that this Court has all along had it in View to obtain from the House of Bavaria the Copy of such Clause or Clauses of the Will and Codicil of the late Emperor Ferdinand I. on which it founded its pretended Rights; but the more that Family concealed it in the Life-time of his late Imperial Majesty our Father, the stronger Reasons had we to insist always upon the same Principle: For as on the one hand it was certain, that in the said Will and Codicil there was not a Tittle of a certain Nota bene which the Count de Perouse read here, and which the Court of Bavaria has dispersed up and down, not only in the Empire but abroad; and as on the other hand if there had been a previous Explanation, it was reasonable to have expected an Evasion of the same Nature as that which was hinted at the Beginning of the Letter aforesaid; it seems to be absolutely necessary to insist on the Point that was first in View.

Soon after the Decease of his Imperial Majesty, the Count de Perouse went to all the Ministers, and read them a Paragraph out of a Dispatch he had receiv'd, importing, that no Step ought to be taken in favour of any one whatsoever to the Prejudice of the Pretensions of the Family of Bavaria; and this Insinuation was founded on what was pretended to be the Tenor of the Will and Codicil of the late Emperor Ferdinand I. the Purport of which was reported almost in the same Terms as in the Nota bene heretofore produced by the Count de Perouse.

The Count did not stop there, but, as we have since heard, has apply'd to all the Foreign Ministers residing here, and has exhorted them not only not to own us for lawful Heiress of all the Hereditary Kingdoms and Dominions possess'd by his Imperial Majesty our Father, but also to suspend all the Functions of their Ministry. 'Tis easy to conceive how we might have resented a Proceeding so unheard-of and so indiscreet; but being inviolably determin'd to walk always in the Steps of our August Father of Glorious Memory, we have chose upon this Occasion to be too moderate rather than in the least precipitant; therefore all we have done is to inform the Foreign Ministers residing here of the Nature of the Pretensions of the Bavarian Family, and of every thing which has pass'd here on that Head, by communicating to them the aforesaid Letter of the 30th of September last. As to the Count de Perouse; when he made his Declaration to the Count de Sintzendorf the First Chancellor of our Court, the latter ask'd him on the Spot, if he would not be pleas'd to give him what he had declar'd, in Writing? This the Count de Perouse did not think fit to do at that time; but afterwards, when undoubtedly he had receiv'd an Order from his Court to that purpose, he did not shew any Aversion to it, saying, that tho' indeed he had no Order to do it, yet, as he was not under any Prohibition, he did not conceive that the meer Reading of it to the Count was sufficient to imprint the very Terms in his Memory. In consequence hereof the underwritten Extract (No. I.) was sent on the first Instant, without any Inscription, to the House of the Count de Sintzendorf our First Chancellor; for which reason we could no longer delay to communicate those Clauses of the Will and Codicil of the Emperor Ferdinand I. which relate to the Succession to the Dominions of his Family; which Clauses are recited in this Rescript [No. II.] and you may in our Name assure the Court where you reside, that either in the Will or Codicil there is not a single Word more relating to the Succession to the Hereditary Kingdoms and Dominions possess'd by that Prince, and that, in order more clearly to demonstrate the Invalidity of the Pretensions of the House of Bavaria, we are ready to shew the Original Will and Codicil not only to the Count de Perouse, if he desires it, but also to all the Foreign Ministers residing here.

We purpose to have the Clauses recited (No. II.) forthwith printed, with short Notes in the Margent; and in the mean time as 'tis necessary to prevent any bad Impressions which might be made by the groundless Insinuations in (No. I.) we cannot but remark, that what is therein advanc'd, viz. 'That the Eldest 'Daughter of the said Emperor Ferdinand I. and her 'Descendants, ought to succeed immediately on Failure 'of the Male Issue of the House of Austria,' is so far from being mention'd in the Will of the said Emperor, that it says quite the contrary; viz. 'That the Eldest 'Daughter of the Emperor Ferdinand I. who (N.B.) 'shall be then alive, shall succeed to the Two Kingdoms of Hungary and Bohemia, with a Preference 'when there are no Lawful Descendants living from 'her Three Brothers.' Now of these there are several alive, among whom, in consequence of the express Terms of the Disposition made by this Will, conformably to the Law of Nature and all other Laws, we ought to have the Preference before any other whomsoever, as the Eldest Daughter of the last Survivor of the Males. Moreover, 'tis a Truth in which all the Civilians are agreed, that when a Succession is in Dispute, which does not exclude the Females, they ought to be included under the Denomination of Lawful Descendants: And this Consideration is more than sufficient to convince all impartial Persons, that there is nothing obscure with regard to this Point, in the last Disposition of the Emperor Ferdinand I. and that, consequently, the Electoral House of Bavaria cannot form any well-grounded Pretension, nor so much as the Shadow of a Pretension, for disputing a Succession with us, which God, Nature, and all Laws, and in particular the Usage of our Archiducal Family secure to us; the rather because we read in a Grant pass'd to the said Family in the XIIth Century by the Emperor Frederick the First, obtain'd Titulo oneroſiſſimo, viz. by the Cession of the Duchy of Bavaria, and afterwards confirmed several Times by the Empire in a Body, and by the Emperors: 'Et si, quod Deus avertat, Dux Austriæ sine hærede Filio decederit, idem Ducatus ad 'seniorem Filiam, quam reliquerit, devolvatur; nec 'Ducatus Austriæ ullo unquam tempore Divisionis ali-'cujus recipiat Sectionem.—— Volumus etiam ut si 'Districtus & Ditiones dicti Ducatus ampliati fuerint, 'ex Hæreditatibus, Donationibus, Emptionibus, De-'prædationibus, vel quibusvis aliis devolutionum Suc-'cessionibus, præfata Jura, Privilegia, & Indulta, ad 'augmentum dicti Dominii Austriæ plenarie referan-'tur.'

You will not only communicate all that is above to the Court where you now reside by Word of Mouth, but you will give it also in Writing, &c.

N. B. The Extracts, &c. above referr'd to, shall be inserted the next Opportunity.

It is to be taken at any Seaſon of the Year, and is very agreeable to Young and Old, that Children take it without Trouble, a few Drops being a Doſe, ſo gentle, that it weakens not the moſt Aged: For it is a ſafe and effectual Alterative, to be taken in a leſs Doſe than where Purging is neceſſary, as Excellence inherent in this Medicine, which is a ſingular Property well known to the Learned, to be in ſome Cathartick Medicines.

It is in particular,

A Certain and infallible Cure for the SCURVY, tho' of the longeſt Standing, and attended with the moſt aggravated Circumſtances (a Diſtemper ſo common to Engliſh People, that not one in a thouſand is wholly exempt from it, and great Numbers are ſorely afflicted with it) being a cordial Elixir, peculiarly adapted to that Diſtemper in all its Forms of appearing, from the ſlighteſt itching Humour in the Blood, to its utmoſt or laſt Efforts on human Nature.

For it is a true Specifick Cordial, that perfectly cures the Diſtemper by gentle Evacuation, by Stool and Urine, the only ſure and effectual Way perfectly to cure the Scurvy, and prevent Relapſes (notwithſtanding what may be dreamt to the contrary) the Truth of which is witneſſed to daily, by the many Thouſands that have taken this Medicine. It to perfectly rectifies the Blood and Juices, that ſcrophulous Cafes are alſo ſpeedily cured by it; and all Spots, Blotches, Pimples, &c. on the Skin, are quickly and entirely taken off, the Patients made lively and brisk, many chronick Diſeaſes prevented, and a due State of Health ſecured.

It removes all Pain in the Stomach, helps Digeſtion, opens Obſtructions, and is peculiarly ſerviceable to Maids inclined to, or troubled with the Green Sickneſs. 'Tis the beſt Medicine in the World to deſtroy Worms in Children or grown People, and prevent their Return; for it ſcours away all that ropy, viſcid Humours which breed them in their Bowels, and is ſo well adapted to all Conſtitutions, that it is deſervedly eſteemed both in City and Country, the moſt general Family Medicine that ever was known to preſerve Health, and hinders no Buſineſs or Recreation.

Good Allowance is given Wholeſale by Mr. King for ready Money to Country Shopkeepers, &c. to ſell again. This Medicine will keep many Years in any Climate.

The Directions given with it are large and full.
